Quilting/Tied Comforters

Several ways you can help:

Make a top. Getting enough tops is always the biggest job. Comforters should be 81x96 or larger. There are boxes of fabric in the hall basement that you can use. Making just one top would be a great contribution.

Help tie a comforter. If you would like to help, but cannot come in the mornings, we can schedule an evening tying. You just show up!

Bind a comforter. Right now, there are 2 or 3 ladies doing all the binding. They are doing a great job, but they could use some help. If you would like to work on comforters, have questions, or be put on a list for reminders for tying sessions or binding, you can call Brenda Eck at 765-3888. The proceeds from the bingo go to charitable causes. This is a good way to help others and be involved in a fun project at the same time.

Adoration

Adoration hours are available. If you are interested, please call or text Ruth May at 259-3902.

Lenten Opportunity

If you are looking for new ways to enhance your Lenten experience, try signing up for daily reflections sent directly to your email. If you haven't already created your own formed.org account, you can do that and then sign up for the Lenten Reflections through the formed.org website. Use our parish code to create a free account. GMWGH6

Stewarding our Gifts: Go in peace glorifying the Lord by your life:

In today's first reading, we see Job in the depths of his misery. He refers to life as "drudgery" and sees his days slipping by in a blur, "swifter than a weaver's shuttle." Here we see a man who has lost everything, including his hope; we see a man who is simply waiting to die. How many of us have allowed ourselves to reach this point of desperation? Have we forgotten our vocations? Have we allowed our attachments to the world to blind us from our greater purpose? In these moments, we must turn to Jesus with the faith of the first disciples. When they told Jesus about Simon's mother-in-law, "He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up. Then the fever left her and she waited on them." Job's self-pity is understandable, but it is not acceptable. The steward must remain upright and turn to Jesus with the hope of strength, healing, and purpose.
