Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples

Since the beginning of Christianity, Jesus' disciples have been persecuted for sharing their beliefs. Over the course of two thousand years, those persecutions have taken on different forms. In today's reading from Acts, we see direct orders from the governing officials and Jewish leaders that attempt to shut down the chaos in the wake of Jesus' death. The apostles, however, were undeterred. In fact, Acts 5:41 says that these earliest missionary disciples "left the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name." While there are many places in the world that still punish Christians with violence, we are fortunate that our country allows us the freedom to worship as we please, but this does not mean that we are not also persecuted for those beliefs. Sadly, it is the culture itself that often tries to stifle the Christian message. In the face of the media, social apps, and "fake news," it can be intimidating to stand up and proclaim the Gospel. Christians are often shamed into silence. It is time for us to look again at the example set by the apostles! We have been baptized into the same Christian community that they were, and we have been given the same mission that they were: go and make disciples of all nations! Let us remember our call to discipleship and be willing to "suffer dishonor for the sake of the name."
